

Hamilton County Bicentennial Fact Sheet

The Hamilton County, Indiana Bicentennial is a celebration of 200 years of history that will take place during all of 2023. It will be an opportunity to achieve these goals:

- Celebrate all 200 years (and beyond) in a complete, accurate way.
- Collaborate and advocate for community through our Bicentennial themes.
- Reflect on our past, celebrate our present, and build towards our future.
- Represent different perspectives and raise all voices in celebration.

Here's how we'll highlight different townships in 2023:

- January - Kickoff Event
- March - White River
- April - Jackson
- May - Adams
- June - Washington
- July - Noblesville
- August - Wayne
- September - Fall Creek
- October - Delaware
- November - Clay
- December - Closing Gala

The Bicentennial themes are:

- Arts
- Diversity and Inclusion
- Education
- Historic Preservation
- Parks and Environment

Don't wait to start planning! You can get involved by following us on social media, submitting an application for an event or program, buying our book, signing up to volunteer, and more. Check out our website for details!
